EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Mental Health and Addiction Facilitator

JOB OVERVIEW:

The Mental Health and Addiction Facilitator (MHAF) is a part of the multidisciplinary Fort McMurray 468 First Nation Health Center Team. The primary responsibilities of the MHAF will be to develop and facilitate evidenced-based and culturally safe mental health and addiction workshops. As such, this position requires that the individual have a demonstrated understanding of First Nation strengths and challenges, and the current sociocultural context. The MHAF will also hold the responsibility as the Fort McMurray 468 First Nation Day-treatment addiction program facilitator once the program is launched. At this time, the focus of responsibilities will be shifted to implementing the day-treatment program.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- To develop and facilitate psychosocial programming, events and workshops for the FM468FN community
- Support the development and implementation of the FM468FN day-treatment program
- Support the initiatives and programming of the Health Center
- Supported by the Health Center Team, design and develop evidence-based and culturally safe mental health and addiction awareness, prevention workshops, resources, events, and activities for the wider community population.
- Develop and implement workshop/group/event evaluation tool to inform quality improvement in program.
- Assist in the organization and implementation of NNADAP programming, events, groups, and workshops.
- With a team, respond to community crisis if requested.
- Create program plan and budget to be approved by the Health Director
- Provide skills in effective prevention/interventions strategies that address the challenges of addictions when needed
- Document and maintain cases thoroughly in the confidential files
- Other duties as assigned

Please email your resume to hr@fmfngroup.com. FMFN #468 would like to thank all applicants at this time; however, only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted directly.
